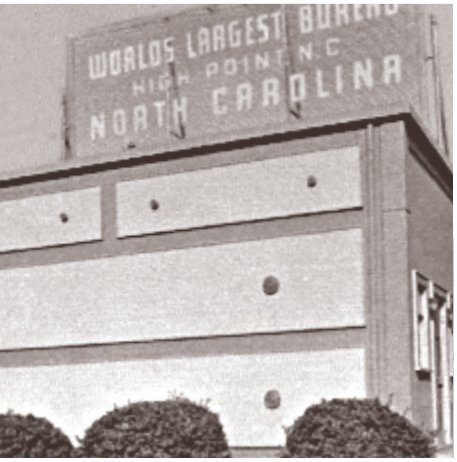
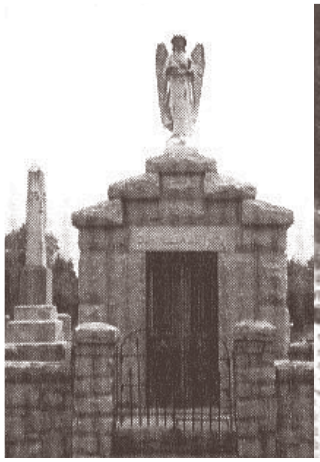
history of high point





Incorporated in 1859, High Point earned its name by being the highest point on the North Carolina railroad between Charlotte and Goldsboro. The center of High Point emerged where the railroad crossed the Plank Road, creating a thriving center of commerce.

An abundant supply of wood led to the production of spindles and axe handles, followed shortly by a booming furniture industry. High Point Furniture Company was the first furniture factory in the United States, and realized immediate success. Other local entrepreneurs saw the opportunity in furniture and began their own companies. By 1903, High Point was home to more than 30 furniture factories. Intuitively, the manufacturers of the area established their first wholesale furnishings show in 1909, which today is the largest wholesale home furnishings show in the world.

A thriving textile industry had also grown throughout High Point during this time, with plants scattered throughout the city and surrounding villages. It was not long before High Point had also garnered the title of "Hosiery Capital of the World." In recognition of these influential industries, a four-story chest of drawers (the middle drawer of which holds a dangling pair of socks) was constructed to commemorate the city's worldwide renown.

Over the years, High Point has built on its rich history. Explore High Point's furniture heritage, unique architecture, historical homes, and strong African-American history. Explore & enjoy High Point!

high point fun facts

• In 1859, High Point's population was just 525 with city limits reaching just one mile each way.

• High Point had the largest Broad Silk plant in the world for production in 1905.

• In 1921, High Point was second only to Chicago in auto thefts and had the nickname of "Little Chicago".

• High Point hosted the first furniture market in 1909. The Market used 30,000 square feet of exhibit space in 8 buildings with 100 exhibitors and 400 attendees and today uses 12 million square feet in 188 buildings in High Point and Thomasville with 3,000 exhibitors and is currently the largest wholesale home furnishings show in the nation!

• High Point Furniture Company was the first furniture manufacturer in High Point and opened in 1889, starting with a capital investment of $9000.00. The company sold single beds for $.75 and three piece bedroom suites for $7.50.

• The World's Largest Chest of Drawers, originally built in 1925 by community members and the High Point Chamber of Commerce, stood 32 feet tall as the "Bureau of Information." Since then the Chest has been renovated and now stands twice as tall and the Gold Leaf Drawer Pulls are 4 feet in length. A human can only reach as high as the chest's legs. The restored chest commemorates High Point's role as a significant furniture manufacturing center.

• Market Square, listed on the National Historic Registrar, used to house Tomlinson Chair Factory. The company began with nearly 200 patterns of high grade chairs which sold as high as $12.00 each in the early 1900s.
