

Discover Pinehurst and the North Carolina Sandhills

Discover the Pinehurst, Southern Pines and Aberdeen area of North Carolina, where legends have been born and traditions forged. Located in the heart of North Carolina's picturesque Sandhills region, world-class golf is only the beginning of the many diversions you'll find here.

1-Day Itinerary

With so much to see and do in the area, we recommend the following 1-day itinerary. Enjoy all the area has to offer by mixing and matching events to your particular interest. Be sure to check days and hours of operation for each venue.

Start the day touring the more than 100-year-old Pinehurst Resort including the Carolina Hotel and the clubhouse from which emanate five courses. Visit the famed Pinehurst No. 2 course, a Donald Ross masterpiece where major championships have been held, including the 2005 U.S. Open Tournament.

For a bit of history in Pinehurst, visit Tufts' Archives in Given Library, in center of the Village of Pinehurst, to see exhibits on the history of golf and the history of Pinehurst. View hundreds of drawings and notes by Donald Ross.

Continue your golf tour by driving through the historic Pinehurst Traffic Circle onto Midland Road, "The Fifth Avenue of Golf," towards Southern Pines. Your drive will take you past eight golf courses: The National, Midland Country Club, Mid South Golf, Club, Longleaf Country Club, Talamore, Knollwood, Mid Pines and Pine Needles. Enter Mid Pines Inn and Golf Club for lunch in the Terrace Room overlooking the Donald Ross designed course and a tour of this 1920s resort.

Departing Mid Pines, turn right and then a quick left into Pine Needles Lodge and Golf Club where the U.S. Women's Open will return for the third time in 2007. Visit the Learning Center for a few tips on improving your golf swing.

Or, if you're in the mood for a little four-footed fun, spend the afternoon in Southern Pines. Drive out Young's Road to see the horse farms and horses. Tour Yellowframe Farm. Check the Convention & Visitors Bureau Calendar of Events just in case there is an equestrian competition, polo or carriage drive in progress.
