Welcome to Pender County, North Carolina

Pender County Tourism, the Burgaw Area Chamber of Commerce, and the Greater Topsail Area Chamber of Commerce welcome you to Find Your Treasure!

Pender County has a treasure trove of natural resources, a vacation playground of water sports and beaches. Explore the Intracoastal Waterway and our inlets, where pirates such as Blackbeard once sailed. Fish the Northeast Cape Fear River and Black River, launch a canoe at Moores Creek National Battlefield, or fish from our famous ocean piers.

Our attractions are gems in our treasure chest of activities. Visit the Karen Beasley Sea Turtle Rescue and Rehabilitation Center where sick and injured sea turtles are nursed back to health. Visit Missiles and More Museum, where rocket technology was developed in the Assembly Building. Don't miss a visit to Moores Creek National Battlefield, Southeastern North Carolina's only national park. Tour the Town of Burgaw, the town that Hollywood loves to film.

Our treasured riches include our food fare. We're home to the NC Blueberry Festival and we're the "Seafood Capital of the Carolinas." Our restaurants feature tantalizing Southern meals.

Welcome to Pender County where you will find your treasure. The Pender County Tourism Office, the Burgaw Area Chamber of Commerce, and the Greater Topsail Area Chamber of Commerce are here to assist.

GOLFING IN HAMPSTEAD

Belvedere Country Club

 The golf course at Belvedere has certainly evolved since its conception in the 1970's. Belvedere now features a rare combination of six par threes, six par fours, and six par fives to achieve a par of 72. Located in coastal Hampstead, NC, the front nine takes you out toward the Intracoastal Waterway and back toward the Clubhouse; the back nine ventures you inland and then back toward the Clubhouse forming a giant figure 8 without any parallel fairways. This design offers a sure test in the normally breezy conditions. You will experience the winds coming from every direction during your round

5 Things to do when it Rains

You've spent months planning a relaxing beach vacation. But you didn't plan on this one day of rain! Don't despair. Here are five suggestions of things to do when it rains on your Topsail Island vacation.

Kids at Play

Head on over to the Missiles and More Museum in the afternoon for an adventure to learn about pirates, rockets and a display that may well be the world's largest seashell collection. Located at 720 Channel Blvd., admission is free. Watch for free programs too!

Go directly to Topsail Island Trading Company and purchase Topsail-Opoly, a new take on an old favorite. This game board features Topsail! Pick up some fudge while you're at the Trading Company!

You might have to stand in line with an umbrella, but the wait is worth a tour of the Karen Beasley Sea Turtle Rescue and Rehabilitation Center. See where the turtles are nurtured and readied for release. Admission fees.

Topsail Skating Rink is located above the Topsail Beach Post Office. This throwback rink is typically open 7-10 p.m. Open some rainy days.

Visit Poplar Grove Plantation and learn about peanut farming, Civil War, and Gullah Geechee Heritage.

Adults at Play

Adults will enjoy the activities suggested for children, but you may just want to explore. Visit The Trailer Bar. Yes, it looks like a trailer. They have a billiards table and entertainment in the evenings. Shop! We have wonderful shops and boutiques to explore.

Dine at one of our locally owned restaurants. Visit with the locals. We love it.

Drive to Burgaw and see where shows like Under the Dome and countless movies were filmed. Shop and dine and let the locals tell you about filming!

Treasure our Heritage

From pirates to patriots, Pender County is rich in history. While many equate North Carolina with the Civil War, we were the first colony to declare our independence. Find your treasure in our heritage itinerary:

Moore's Creek National Battlefield, Southeastern North Carolina's only national park, is located in Currie. Patriots and Loyalists battled over a bridge and the Patriots won their first victory over the Loyalists – first in freedom. At Moore's Creek, see the bridge and experience history where freedom was born.

Historic Downtown Burgaw, our county seat of government, is an iconic American town. Often called "Little Hollywood," Burgaw has set the stage for numerous movies and productions. On the heritage tour, don't miss the Burgaw Train Depot, the oldest train depot in the state. The depot played an important role in the Civil War.

Missiles and More Museum is the birthplace of rocket technology; features Operation Bumblebee and our history of pirates and more on their free tours. Visit the building where rockets were assembled.

Penderlea Homestead was the first farming community in the FDR New Deal Administration. Farmers had land, a home with running water and electricity, a barn and more. The community thrived and built a school, churches, and a community center. It thrives today at Penderlea Homestead Museum.

Pender Museum, operated by the Pender Historical Society, features an authentic blacksmith shop, blueberry farming, and artifacts from Pender's legacy. Free admission.

Poplar Grove Plantation, once the largest peanut plantation in North Carolina, takes visitors back into the antebellum period. Experience the life of a plantation owner or a tenant farmer and the Gullah Geechee heritage.

At the Dallas Herring Library Annex you just may find your family ties to the South, especially the Cape Fear Region. Located at 108 Cowan St. in Burgaw, this is a genealogy dream.

Live Like a Local!

If visiting for one weekend, one week, or one month, live like a local. Here are some local tips:

Pender County, the home of the NC Blueberry Festival, brims with blueberry and strawberry farms. For a half hour, pick your own at one of our farms. The children will love the farm experience.

Call the Surf City Surf School and take a surfing lesson. Or go boating with East Coast Sports, Tuck's Water Shuttle, or launch a kayak with Herrings Outdoor Sports.

Shopping for groceries? Did you know the Surf City IGA on Wednesdays offers "Locals Only" specials?

Meander into Burgaw and people watch on the courthouse square. Visit the Pender Museum and look at how blueberries were packaged. A visit to the Historic Burgaw Train Depot is a must. Union troops tried to burn it and town folk saved it. The burnt rafters can still be seen today. Have lunch at one of our restaurants and shop the many antique stores. On the way to Burgaw, from the coast, stop by Lane's Ferry along the Northeast Cape Fear River.

Visit Paul's Place, a famous hot dog joint loved by many a Hollywood star. Take home a jar of the Paul family's famous relish.

Visit the Karen Beasley Sea Turtle Rescue and Rehabilitation on Saturday, if possible. The line is shorter!

The Historical Society of Topsail Island hosts Bingo! and free aquarium programs in the summer. Their luncheons are always interesting and guests are always welcomed. They meet at the Assembly Building in Topsail Beach.

Can't get enough Farm Life?

A large portion of Pender County is farmland. Our blueberry fields are renowned. Each year, surrounding the courthouse square in Burgaw, we celebrate all things blueberry with the North Carolina Blueberry Festival. In season, visit one of our blueberry farms. Please call or email first due to seasonal hours.
