

Appendix C

Blank Accessibility Checklist

Accessibility Checklist for Trail Assessment

Trail Name: _____

Address: _____

Date of Visit: _____

City: _____

Land Manager: _____

Operating Hours: _____

Parking Lot
What is the ground or floor surface of the lot?	Paved, Gravel, Dirt, Other
Are their marked ADA accessible parking spaces available? -minimum of 8 ft wide (108 in) -marked access aisle 5ft (60 In) for 2 spots next to each other	Yes No If yes, how many?
Are the accessible spots closely related to entry of trail or with direct pathways to start of trail?	Yes No
Are the accessible spots on a level, hard surface?	Yes No
Is each accessible spot designated with an international symbol of accessibility? 	Yes No If yes, is it clearly marked?
If applicable, is there a curb ramp to access trail entrance? -not projecting into any traffic or other parking spots -maximum running slop of 1:12 -width of >36 inches -smooth transition over changes in surfaces	Yes No
Restroom
Are bathrooms available at the trail? What is the style of the space?	Yes No (Port-A-Potty, individual stall, etc.)

To use this information in a press release or reference it, the official name of the study is "Visit North Carolina: Trail Accessibility" and the credit line should read: "This study was prepared for Visit North Carolina by Hannah Caitlyn Guschel, the West Virginia University (WVU) Occupational Therapy Doctoral Student, and collaborators Amanda Baker and Marlise Taylor at Visit North Carolina (NC)."

Individual bathrooms?	Yes	No
Gender neutral/family restrooms?	Yes	No
What is the weight of the bathroom door?
Are there handicap accessible restrooms advertised outside the bathroom space?	Yes	No
Are restroom entrances at least 32 inches wide?	Yes	No
What handle is used in the bathroom?	Toilet:
	Sink:
	Stall:
	Door:
Are there adequate turning spaces for a wheelchair to turn within the stall? -at least 60 inches	Yes	No
Are there grab bars in the stall?	Yes	No
-33-36 inches from the ground	Yes	No
-mounted securely	Yes	No
Is the flush control located on the open side of the toilet and mounted no higher than 48 inches above the floor?	Yes	No
Operable with one hand, with no tight grasp needed?	Yes	No
Is there adequate spacing under the sink/drying area for a wheelchair?	Yes	No
Is there soap and paper towels available?	Yes	No
Is there electrical lighting within the bathroom?	Yes	No
Information Brochures/ Signage
Is signage available to provide information on trail segment prior to beginning?	Yes	No
Is a brail version of brochures/signage available?	Yes	No
Translation?
Talk to text?	Yes	No
	Yes	No
Trail Features
What is the total distance of the trail?
What is the elevation gain of the whole trail?
What is the ground or floor surface of the trail (i.e. Gravel, pavement, mulch, etc.)? (list all surfaces an individual may encounter on the trail)
What is the running slope of the trail?	Avg:
	Max:

To use this information in a press release or reference it, the official name of the study is "Visit North Carolina: Trail Accessibility" and the credit line should read: "This study was prepared for Visit North Carolina by Hannah Caitlyn Guschel, the West Virginia University (WVU) Occupational Therapy Doctoral Student, and collaborators Amanda Baker and Marlise Taylor at Visit North Carolina (NC)."

What is the Cross slope of the trail?	Avg: Max:
How many entry and exit points exist?	Entry: Exit:
Is the trail used for anything other than walking? If so, then what?	Yes No
Are pets allowed on the trail?	Yes No
Are service animals allowed on the trail?	Yes No
What is the tread width of the trail?	Typical: Minimum:
Can a wheelchair user pass another wheelchair user?	Yes No
If not, are there designated trail passing spaces?	Yes No
Is there a clear vertical clearance (>80 inches) along the trail?	Yes No
Is there an accessible viewing site?	Yes No
Are there resting spots/benches are located on the trail? Roughly, how far apart?	Yes No
Is there access to covered Shelters along the trail?	Yes No
Is there access to shade if needed along the trail? Is there constant sky exposure?	Yes No Yes No
Are there any large barriers/obstacles that would interfere with direct pathway of trail?	Yes No If yes, what?
Are there any openings or holes greater than ½ foot?	Yes No If yes, what?
Is there cell phone reception?	Yes No
Are there help lines/emergency services along the trail?	Yes No
Is there available directional signage on the trail?	Yes No
Are translation services of the sign available as needed (i.e. braille, talk to text, etc.).	Yes No
If so, are they in an appropriate location?	Yes No
What are the sensory attributes of the trail?

To use this information in a press release or reference it, the official name of the study is “ Visit North Carolina: Trail Accessibility ” and the credit line should read: “This study was prepared for Visit North Carolina by Hannah Caitlyn Guschel, the West Virginia University (WVU) Occupational Therapy Doctoral Student, and collaborators Amanda Baker and Marlise Taylor at Visit North Carolina (NC).”

Amenities/Site Furnishings
Is there an accessible water station?	Yes No
What are the controls at the water station?
Is there an accessible picnic bench or seating? -36 in wide by 52 in deep	Yes No
Is there rentable equipment at the trail if needed? (ex: canoe, paddle board, bike, etc.).	Yes No
Handicap accessible equipment available?
Are in person trail guides available?	Yes No
Do you need to request the service?	Yes No
If not, is another version of the guide available? (i.e. audio, print, virtual, etc.)	Yes No
Are interpretive opportunities available for information guides?	Yes No

Notes

To use this information in a press release or reference it, the official name of the study is “Visit North Carolina: Trail Accessibility” and the credit line should read: “This study was prepared for Visit North Carolina by Hannah Caitlyn Guschel, the West Virginia University (WVU) Occupational Therapy Doctoral Student, and collaborators Amanda Baker and Marlise Taylor at Visit North Carolina (NC).”